BREED THEATER.

A Romance of the Western Hills, Beautiful Biograph Feature.

A thoroughly delightful feature picture was shown at the large audience at the Broad theater last evening under the title of A Romance of the Western Hills, and as it is enacted by the famous Biograph cast it needs no further recommendation. To say that it is picturesque is placing it mildly, for the many attractive scenes become bewildering when displayed before the countless vistas of California valleys or at the foot of the hills, over which riotous roses are seemingly clambering for the summit. Strong braves, rugged types and chapsy cowboys are grouped in artistic carelessness through the various scenes and the return of the pretty but misguided Indian girl to her Indian lover is one of the gems of the picture.

The wonderful story of the day baker who is striving to discover the secret of manufacturing unbreakable pottery is another big film triumph, while the closing reel, carrying three comedies, all of which are excellent, is a valuable acquisition to the show. Miss Selmer wins the house with the pretty ballad Think of Me When I Am Gone, later singing the illustrated song I'm Longing for Tomorrow When I Think of Yesterday.

St. Pierre Today.

That terrible eruption of Mont Pelée on the island of St. Pierre occurred eight years ago on the 8th of this month, and kindred Martinique, which with its 40,000 people, was overwhelmed by the shower of ashes is almost covered by the rapidly growing tropical verdure. A correspondent of the London Times lately visited the city, and a little of the description of what he saw there is reproduced, for its vivid suggestion of the interference of Nature. He says:

"From the hill slopes on all sides vegetation has pushed its way among the ruins. Seeds have been blown by the wind or dropped by birds, or having long lain dormant in crevices of houses and in the unoriginal earth of the city, have now thrust up through the overlying layer of debris to grow in every interstice, overhanging every wall from where the roofs once were, a mantle of foliage and blossoming shrubs has been drawn over the whole dead city. Each straight-paved street, with the white walls on either hand, is little more than a pergola, a grove, a canopy cut through by the dark, wherein the 40,000 human beings lie buried, there is a constant play of life, the race of green leaves, the bright flowers and bright-colored wings shimmering in the hot West Indian sun."

In a few years more the ruins will have disappeared under the tangle of luxuriant green. Poisonous reptiles will become its inhabitants. The little industry of a few blacks who offer to the chance visitor ghastly souvenirs of the great catastrophe will be ended. The bones of 40,000 people, overtaken by a terrible death, will have crumbled to nothingness. Yet wherever St. Pierre is dimly remembered tradition will persist of brutal and uncanny orgies, and of mysteriously wicked rites which made the city conspicuous among the wicked cities of the modern world. That which happened to St. Pierre, and in spite of man's boast that they are superior to superstition, by and by there may grow up among the dim memory another tale of an offended Almighty's vengeance.—New Bedford Standard.

THE RUUD MAN

Will be at our Main Street Office on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 15, 17 and 18, to DEMONSTRATE the famous RUUD AUTOMATIC INSTANTANEOUS GAS WATER HEATER.

What the Ruud Means in the Household

With a Ruud in the home, all the inconvenience of the change boiler with its limited supply of stale hot water, is removed. The Ruud means unlimited hot water at every faucet, at any time, day or night, without even a thought of anything but a more turn of the faucet. The Ruud is so perfect in its action, and unfailing in its ability to furnish ever-ready hot water, that the ideal of hot water service is reached.

Profits of Gardening.

In this unjust world a large part of the profits of a town garden are made by the hardware stores.—Acheson Globe.

Already 3,000 laborers are employed on reclamation work in the valley of the Euphrates, and they are but the countless legions of larger forces soon to follow. Ages ago Mesopotamia grew wheat for the whole east and if the plans of Sir Henry Wilcocks work out successfully the vast area of land between the two great rivers of Turkish-Arabia will again become the greatest grain-growing country in that part of the world.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in cases from 10 drops to a tea spoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. This cure has cured hundreds of cases. It cures catarrh in any form. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
